

Appendix – I

- The NAMS does not provide course details to the candidate requiring training. The same is to be mentioned and decided by the applicant themselves as to where and which institution and in which area or topic he/she wants to undergo the specialized training.
- The accommodation during training, etc. has also to be arranged by the applicant himself/herself.
- In exceptional cases, an application may be submitted within the closing date without a Consent Letter from the Host Institution. However, in such a situation the Consent Letter have to be sent within two months of date of submission of the application.
- Nominations received after this date will not be considered.
